

I listen to K-Love each day as i go to work.. It helps me get my mind on things of the Lord which helps me get through the day..I live in a mormon state, christian radio stations may be the only way they will hear the truth about Jesus and His love for them. Through this station and stations like them they can learn what the only way to heaven is and that is through Jesus.